Philosophical Transactions of the Royal Society of London began publication in 1665, with a slightly different "Philosophical Transactions" title. In 1887 it split into two parts (A and B), one for mathematics, physical sciences, and engineering, and one for biology. These two parts are still published today; volumes for those parts can be found via the "Related Resources" section below.

Philosophical Transactions of the Royal Society of London

Philosophical Transactions, titled Philosophical Transactions of the Royal Society (often abbreviated as Phil. Trans.) from 1776, is a scientific journal published by the Royal Society. In its earliest days, it was a private venture of the Royal Society's secretary. It became an official society publication in 1752.
