A world map or atlas would be handy here – there might be a map in one of the students’™ textbooks. 3. Ask the students to tell you about news stories they have seen or read about people who have travelled around the world. Tell them that they are going to read about 3 round-the-world travellers but that first they need to look at some vocabulary.

the world on emerging traveller trends. The reason we do this is that as we look to the next 10 to 15 years and beyond, arguably no group is better placed – or in fact more integral - to the continued evolution of our industry than travellers themselves. We are all travellers after all, and the inspiration constantly driving new exploration and adventure is what makes the travel industry so ...
